The "Man's Store" Business Is Increasing Every Year

The reward of selling good clothes at honest prices is more business all the time. The Washington man knows where to get the best values in clothing, and he not only keeps on buying here, but brings his friends. We've never shown higher class, better tailored, or better quality clothing than we offer this season, and we've never offered such values since the Man's Store started. Here are two examples of the values that are making this the busiest clothing store in Washington:

The "M. S. M." Spring Suits, The "M. S. M." Top-coats,

$16.50 $13.75

The greatest ready-to-wear Suits ever produced in America at $16.50. Swagger models for the young fellows; stylish conservative models for neat dressers; fabrics the newest and best; handsome, plain fabrics and smart check and overplaid novelties, equal to any $20 suits ever sold elsewhere. Here at..... $16.50

Two styles—the nobby tan covert top-coat, sleeves with or without cuffs—a swagger garment for stylish dressers. The other a light-weight black dress overcoat—both coats that any man can use spring or fall—qualities that will match up with the best $16.50 coats you ever saw. Our leader at..... $13.75

Three Good Reasons

Why Electric Light Is the Best Illuminant for Home Use.

- First—It does not vitiate the air nor throw off any of the products of combustion; consequently, it is best from a health standpoint.
- Second—Being perfectly clear, it is a preventive of smoke-up ceilings and wall papers. All other forms of light discolor the decorations of any room where they are used.
- Third—Owing to the improved methods of wiring and the dispelling of the old, erroneous idea that fires due to unknown causes were the result of the use of electricity, THIS MODERN LIGHT IS NOW GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS THE SAFEST OBTAINABLE.

HAGERMAN SEES PRESIDENT

New Mexican Governor Faces Pending Charges.

Declares He Inherited Troubles When He Entered Office, and Will Not Discuss White House Visit.

Herbert J. Hagerman, territorial governor of New Mexico, had a conference with President Roosevelt yesterday about the charges pending against the governor concerning the transfer of certain lands to a development company. Gov. Hagerman came to Washington at the request of James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Department of the Interior.

While he admitted that his mission to this city concerned the charges pending against him, the governor would not discuss what had transpired yesterday at the White House. He also was closeted with Secretary Garfield yesterday on the same question.

"I do not care to say what was discussed to-day with the President," Gov. Hagerman said last evening. "If there is anything to be given out about this visit of mine, I prefer that it come from the President himself."

"The land deal with which an effort has been made to connect me was started before I entered office. I inherited the complications, one might say, and now some of the people out there are trying to drag me into the affair."

Gov. Hagerman will remain in Washington at the Raleigh several days. He may leave here within a few days and will return before a great while, when the same question will be taken up again with the government officials.

Gov. Hagerman is one of the youngest executives in the United States—he is thirty-five years old. He is tall, rather good-looking, and has a pleasant personality. He is smooth-shaven and his hair is sprinkled with gray.

Until Gov. Hagerman got mixed up in the present misunderstanding, he is said to have had a clean record. "Bull" Andrews, one of the Territorial representatives, is said to be behind the case against Hagerman and the others concerned. He is accompanied by Levi Hughes, treasurer of the Territory.

Colored Y. M. C. A. Fund Growing.

Contributions to the building fund of the Colored Young Men's Christian Association has now reached over one-third of the amount necessary to secure the $25,000 offered by Mr. Rockefeller. One young man subscribed $20, and gave his personal note so that the amount can be realized from his estate in case anything should happen to him before the subscription was paid in. Eight hundred and ninety dollars was received yesterday. This brings the total amount up to $9,423.50.
